

7. "The Bridge Between"

This piece of art was inspired by the difference of the quality of life in the world. I wanted to show this difference by using an expressive means of putting the idea across. Using bright colours and fast brush strokes. The bridge is meant to reflect the separation of the rich world and poor world and hopefully the unity in the future.