1) WORKSHOP: CODE OF GAMERS

Organization: International Institute of childs rights

The workshop aims to guarantee the rights of young people aged 12 to 15 in the world of video games and apps. Objectives include understanding gaming platforms and applications, and their implications for children's rights. The workshop includes a presentation on children's rights and small-group discussions, using concrete examples of video games and apps. For teachers, this workshop offers an in-depth understanding of the world of video games, a knowledge of children's rights related to digital technology, and an awareness of ethical and societal issues. The workshop is available in French, German and English, and lasts 45 minutes.

- Date: May 15
- Times: 10:00 am 10:45 am or 11:00 am 11:45 am
- Languages: German, French, English

2) WORKSHOP: DISCOVERING CHILDREN'S RIGHTS

Organization: International Institute of childs rights

An educational indoor treasure hunt for 6-year-olds invites children to explore and understand their rights in a play ful way. Objectives include raising awareness of children's rights and reflecting on the ideal school environment. Through a treasure hunt with four stations, children explore different aspects of their rights, such as the right to participation, quality education and leisure. For teachers, this workshop offers a playful approach to children's rights, and encourages the development of skills such as critical thinking.

- Date: May 15
- Schedule: 10:00 am 10:45 am or 11:00 am 11:45 am
- Languages: German, French, English

3) WORKSHOP: OVERCOMING UNSUSTAINABLE PRODUCTION AND CONSUMPTION

Organization: SDG Lab

This SDG Lab workshop aims to raise awareness of the detrimental effects of overconsumption and unsustainable production practices, using the fashion industry as a case study. Through activities like role-playing different stakeholders in fast fashion and negotiating key elements to address the issue, participants will gain insights into the complexities of sustainable consumption. Ultimately, attendees will collaboratively draft and sign a communiqué outlining five golden rules of sustainable fashion, symbolically presented to a fictive UN assembly. Expert best-practice sharing will be leaving participants inspired and informed to enact meaningful changes in their consumption habits.

- Date: May 15
- Schedule: 10:00 am 11:30 am
- Language: English
- Target audience: Sec. II
- Number of participants: one class (approx. 25 people)
- Location: to be announced
- Registration: https://forms.gle/SZr8WBLDccC66RG16

4) MEETING: INTERGENERATIONAL EXCHANGES ON INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

Organization: Association Greycells

The meeting offers a platform for dynamic intergenerational exchange, with the aim of exploring the challenges and opportunities of international collaboration, particularly in the area of refugee protection. Our Greycells representative, drawing on her commitment and experience, will present concrete examples from her professional career. These illustrations will highlight the challenges and successes encountered in an ever-changing world, helping students to better understand current issues.

- Date: May 15
- Time: 11:00 am 12:00 pm
- Languages: German, French, English
- Public: Secondary II students

5) MEETING: INTEGRATING REFUGEES THROUGH "FLAVORS OF THE WORLD"

Organization: Cuisine Lab

Cuisine Lab is a culinary laboratory that promotes the integration of refugees through their culinary skills. This event gives students the opportunity to meet and talk with passionate Cuisine Lab chefs, who will share their know-how, their stories and their love for the cuisine of their countries of origin. This experience will help you understand the importance of social integration through culinary sharing. In addition, a small tasting session will be organized to enrich this encounter.

- Date: May 15
- Schedule: 9:00 am 10:00 am
- Language: French
- Public: Secondary I or II students

7) GUIDED TOUR OF THE INTERNATIONAL RED CROSS AND RED CRES-CENT MUSEUM (MICR)

Organization: International Museum of the Red Cross and Red Crescent

The mission of the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) is to alleviate human suffering, protect the lives of people affected by armed conflict and promote respect for international humanitarian law. The MICR's permanent exhibition offers a unique opportunity to discover the world of humanitarian action, and to gain an understanding of its history and challenges. It tackles three major current challenges, each of which, in its own way, offers a possible answer to the question: how does humanitarian action concern us all, here and now?
